

Dunkettle Progress Update

11th September 2023

- Works have progressed well over the past few days in relation to the completion of Link D Northbound (the new link for N40 northbound traffic wishing to access the M8 Northbound heading towards Dublin) – see layout plan below.

Link D Northbound – the new free flow link from the N40 / Tunnel to the M8 Northbound / Dublin

- We now hope to complete surfacing works in this area under night-time working on Monday 11th September 2023 and to open the new link road thereafter on Tuesday 12th September 2023 after the PM peak traffic period. The opening of the road will be confirmed via the Dunkettle App and Twitter along with the permanent Variable Message Signs on the N40 northbound south of the Tunnel. Motorists should note the requirement to exit to the right after passing through the tunnel to access the new link road – see photograph below.
